

The Take One Picture approach

The 'Take One Picture' approach is based on the National Gallery's Take One Picture programme:

www.nationalgallery.org.uk/learning/take-one-picture. It involves students leading the learning and undertaking a project or enquiry based on one original image.

enquiry have? What end products might you make?

1. What do you see, notice, wonder?
2. What questions do you have about it?
3. What possible lines of enquiry might you take?
4. What possible outcome might your enquiry have? What end products might you make?
